

TEEM '14

Technological Ecosystems for
Enhancing Multiculturality

Salamanca, October 1st- 3rd, 2014

<http://teemconference.eu>

SALAMANCA

TEEM '14

Technological Ecosystems for Enhancing Multiculturality

GETTING TO SALAMANCA

The most common way to travel to Salamanca from another country is by flying first to Madrid's International Airport, called Adolfo Suárez Madrid-Barajas.

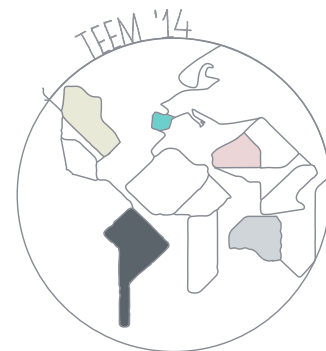

Recently, it is becoming more popular to fly to the airport in Valladolid (Villanubla). The main airline is Ryanair.

Spanish Airlines: AENA (www.aena.es).

MADRID

BY AIR

FROM THE AIRPORT ADOLFO SUÁREZ MADRID-BARAJAS.

OPTION 1

You can travel to Salamanca from Barajas directly by bus. The bus company is AUTO-RES (www.avanzabus.com) Madrid airport-Salamanca: 2 hours 45 minutes, Express Service.

One way: EUR 25.95. Round trip: EUR 42.20.

OPTION 2

To catch a train (Estación de Chamartín) or a bus (Estación de Auto-Res, at Méndez Álvaro), you can take a taxi (approx. EUR 23, between 15 and 30 minutes) or use the metro (approx. EUR 1, between 40 and 60 minutes, from line 8, "Aeropuerto" metro station).

- To Estación de Auto-Res by metro:

· Option A (3 transfers) – line 8 to "Mar de Cristal" – line 4 to "Avenida de América" (Direction "Argüelles" > south) – line 6 (circular) to "Méndez Álvaro" (Direction > south, passing through "Diego de León").

· Option B (2 transfers) – line 8 toward "Nuevos Ministerios" – very long transfer to line 6 (circular) to "Méndez Álvaro" (Direction > east, passing through "República Argentina").

- To Chamartín by metro – line 8 toward "Nuevos Ministerios" – line 10 toward "Chamartín" (direction "Fuencarral" > north). Metro in Madrid (www.metromadrid.es)

BY BUS

FROM ESTACIÓN DE AUTO-RES, AT MÉNDEZ ÁLVARO

The bus company from Madrid is AUTO-RES (www.avanzabus.com)

Madrid-Salamanca: 2.5 hours, Express Service (every hour). One way: EUR 17.40. Round trip: EUR 28.60 (valid: 1 year).

Another bus company that has national and international service is ALSA (www.alsa.es)

BY TRAIN

FROM ESTACIÓN DE CHAMARTÍN

The Spanish train company is RENFE (www.renfe.es)

Discounts of 20% with the Youth Card (Euro <26)

Madrid Chamartín-Salamanca: 2.5 hours, 7 trains daily.

One way: EUR 16.50. Round trip: 10% discount (valid: 15 days).

VALLADOLID

BY AIR

FROM THE AIRPORT VILLANUBLA.

There are 11 km between Villanubla and Valladolid. Linecar runs buses that correspond to check-in and boarding times of Ryanair, as well as landing times between Valladolid bus station and Villanubla (airport).

There are also taxis that charge a fixed rate of 14 euros.

The bus station and the train station in Valladolid are 3 minutes apart by foot.

BY BUS

The bus company from Valladolid is AUTO-RES (www.avanzabus.com)

Valladolid-Salamanca: 1 hour 15 / 1 hour 30 minutes. 4-7 buses daily.

One way: EUR 7.40 to 9.75 . Round trip: EUR 13.50 to 17.60 (valid: 1 year).

Another bus company that has national and international service is ALSA (www.alsa.es)

BY TRAIN

The Spanish train company is RENFE (www.renfe.es)

Discounts of 20% with the Youth Card (Euro <26)

Valladolid Campo Grande-Salamanca: 1 hour 15 / 1 hour 30 minutes. 5-6 trains daily.

One way: EUR 7.50 to 19.00. Round trip: 10% discount (valid: 15 days).

